Friday, October 27 1704

From the Amst. & Leid. Gazettes, of Oct. 30 & 31.

Vienna, October 18.

WE have receiv'd a Confirmation of the Arrival of the Emperor's Plenipotentiaries and the Ministers of the States General, at Schemnitz: They were conducted into the Town by 300 of Prince Ragotski's Horse, and receiv'd by the Plenipotentiaries of the Malecontents with all the Marks of Honour that could be desir'd: But none of the Preliminaries of the Treaty are yet settled. The Emperor to facilitate an Accommodation, has prolong'd the Suspension of Arms till the end of this Month. Those of the Malecontents that are Protestants, in particular Monsieur Oskay, insist peremptorily that the Jesuits be oblig'd to depart the Kingdom of Hungary, that all the Lands or Effects the Emperor has given them since the last War with the Turks, be restor'd to the Persons who were despoil'd of the same; and that his Imperial Majesty cause the Treaty concerning Religion made at Oedembourg to be executed. We have Advice from Transilvania, that a little before the Publication of the former Suspension of Arms, General Rabutin who commands in that Principality defeated a strong Body of Malecontents; killing or taking a considerable Number of them. We have Advice from Belgrade, that 25 Frenchmen are arriv'd there, with a very considerable Sum of Money, to endeavour, by tampering with the chief Leaders of the Malecontents, wholly to obstruct the Treaty of Accommodation, if possible: And we are well assur'd the French Minister at the Porte leaves no Stone unturn'd to induce the Turkish Court to break the Truce. The Emperor has promoted Collonel Virmont, the Count of Herberstein, and Monsieur Bibra Major General in the Palatin Troops, to the Post of Imperial Major Generals. The 15th instant Monsieur Harboe a Danish Lieutenant General arriv'd here, upon some Business relating to the Troops of that Nation that are in his Imperial Majesty's Service. General Heister continues in this City, and will tarry here till the Conferences at Schemnitz are ended: Mean time Recruits are sent daily to the Body of Troops that is commanded by him.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Nov. 1.

Vienna, October 18. 'Tis uncertain yet what will be the Issue of the Treaty of Accommodation now in Hand between the Emperor and the Malecontents of Hungary: the more because, for ought we can learn, the latter have not yet accepted the Mediation of the English and Dutch Ministers: But yet 'tis the general Rumour, that the Malecontents are thoroughly dispos'd to accept the Terms the Imperial Plenipotentiaries are commission'd to offer to them; mean time they do not neglect to make Preparations for acting offensively, in case the Treaty come to nothing: Nor is the Imperial Court unmindful of providing against the worst.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated Oct. 31.

Leopold, October 8. The Referendarius of the Crown with the Polish Troops he commands, and General Mironowicz with his Cossacks, are march'd from Samber towards Ostroe, there to joyn General Mazeppa who is at the Head of a considerable Body of Cossacks. The new King Stanislaus, went a few days ago from Jaroslaw to Rzeszow, to meet the Castellan of Cracow, but did not find him there. The King of Sweden has oblig'd the Inhabitants of Zamosc to pay him 60000 Rixdollars.

Cracow, October 12. General Horne pass'd through this Place 2 or 3 days ago, under a Guard of 40 Saxons: 'Tis said they are to conduct him to Leiplich in Saxony.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Octob. 30.

Warsaw, Octob. 16. A few days ago King Augustus broke up from Pultow, and march'd to Zacrokcin, after having caus'd all the Bridges on the Bug and Narew, within a certain Distance, to be broken down; and all the Vessels and Boats found in those 2 Rivers, within the same distance, to be sunk. 'Tis reported his Majesty designs to pass the Vistula, over a Bridge of Boats which his Majesty has caus'd to be laid some Leagues below this City; and that his Majesty has dispatch'd Orders to all the Troops he has in Podlachia and Great Poland to come and joyn him forthwith. Supposing this Report to be true, 'tis wholly uncertain whether he will march with all his Forces into Prussia, or to Cracow; or whether he will only make a stand in our Neighbourhood against the Swedes who are moving this way in 3 Columns, along the Vistula, and whose foremost Troops are said to be advanc'd within 9 Leagues of this Place. The Pope's Nuncio is gone from hence, to wait upon King Augustus in his Camp: Whence he will proceed to Dantzick to visit the Cardinal Primate, and endeavour to perfect a Reconciliation between his Eminency and King Augustus.

Warsaw, Octob. 17. The Inhabitants of this City are in a great Consternation, upon the confirm'd Advice we have receiv'd that the Swedes are in full March this way. The King has sent Order to General Brand to draw off from before Posnania, and come and joyn him with all Expedition, with the Body of Troops he commands. The Bishop of Culm, the Palatin of Russia, and some other Persons of Quality are gone to Prussia: The Bishop of Lucovia tarrys with the King.

Thorn, Octob. 19. An Officer is just arriv'd here, who 'tis said was dispatch'd from the Camp before Posnania, with Advice that that Town is surrendred at Discretion to Lieutenant General Brand; and consequently that the Swedes who were garrison'd in it are all made Prisoners of War. But we must have the Confirmation and the Particulars of this important News, before we give Credit to it.

Portsmouth, Octob. 24. This day came to Spithead the Flying Herring of and for Amsterdam, Christian Vander Rose Master, and the King William of and for for Middleburg, Daniel Markla Maister, both from Leghorn; they stop'd at Gibraltar, and came thence 19 days ago: The Masters report, that 3 days before they came from Gibraltar, the French Men of War that had been before that Place were all gone, except 5 small Ships, which they left behind to observe the coming out of her Majesty's Ship the Lark and these 2 Dutch Ships, which lay behind the Fort. But the Lark and these Ships came away in the Night, and so escap'd the Enemy. This day likewise came in a new built Ship design'd for India, call'd the Suffex, built at Shorum, bound for London, and forc'd hither by contrary Winds. The Fleet that went hence on Saturday last under Convoy of the Flamborough, and consisted of 60 Sail, bound for the Downs, are separated, about 13 of them are return'd hither, among them the Flamborough.

London, October 27. Yesterday came in 2 Mails from Lisbon, the last being dated the 21st of October N. S. which bring Advice, that two of our Frigates had taken in their Cruise, and sent into Lisbon; two French Bankers, two Spanish Advice-boats of about 150 Tuns each, and a Spanish Tartan bound to Ceuta, having in her a considerable Sum in Pieces of Eight.

We have seen a Letter from the Army commanded by the Earl of Gallaway, dated the 8th of October, N. S. from the Camp at Pastores, which say they had advanc'd the day before towards Ciudad Rodrigo to the River Agueda; but the Enemy having thrown up Works to hinder their passing it where it was fordable; it was judg'd best not to attempt it.

Several of the Russia Ships that were missing, being separated in the Voyage from their Convoy, arriv'd the 25th at Night at Gravesend.

Yesterday Stocks were as follows, Bank 119 & a half. New Comp. 240 & a half. Shares 25. Old Comp. 119 & a half. Million Bank 83, Sword Blades 79. African 18 & 5 eighths.
